20 Seasonal Letter of the Day Charts

Letter perfect

Directions:

If you'd like to use these each year, print, laminate and clip to your white board.

This is also a nice activity to use as a review if you post it on your calendar board.

Using a dry erase marker, write the upper and lowercase letters in the boxes. You can show correct formation of the letters, or choose a student to do so.

Ask students, "What sound does the letter make?" Say the sound several times.

Ask them if they know any words that begin with that sound?

Write the words in the appropriate boxes.

Have students look at your word wall to see if they can find any more to add to the list.

Do any classmates have a name that starts with that letter?

You can either write their name on the paper or have the child with that name come up and write it.

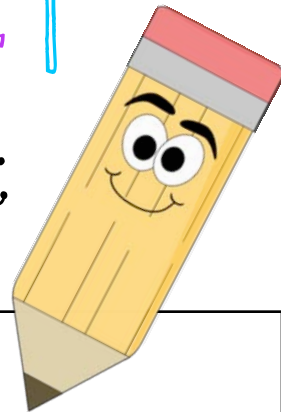

Choose another child to circle the letters in the "Find it" section. This is a good time to point to each letter and say the letter or sing the alphabet song.

Another option is to not laminate the pages and have children fill in the information. When the page is complete, add it to your Letter of the Day binder. When you have done all 26 letters, put this student-made booklet in your classroom library.

Occasionally, you may want to run a page off for your students to work on for Daily 5 Word Work.
