

90 Valentine Number Puzzles

Diane Henderson

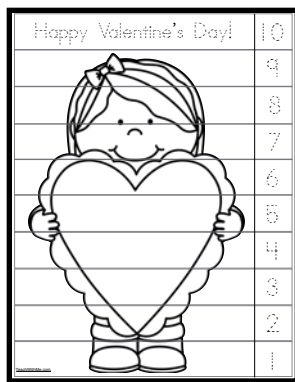

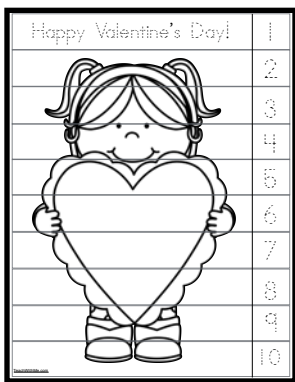

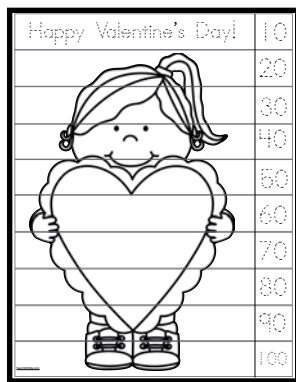

Here's my Snack Baggie valentine puzzle gift.

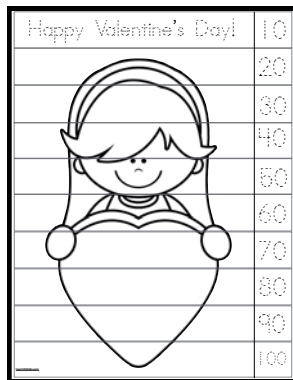

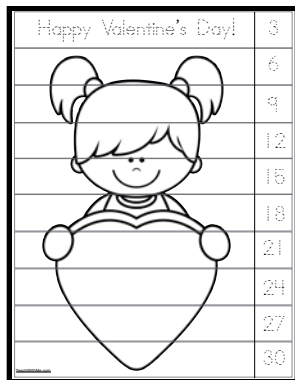

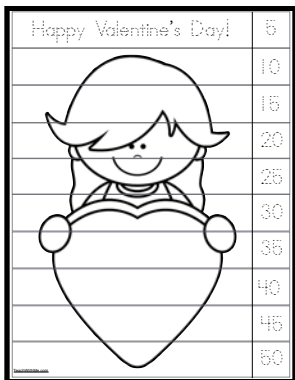

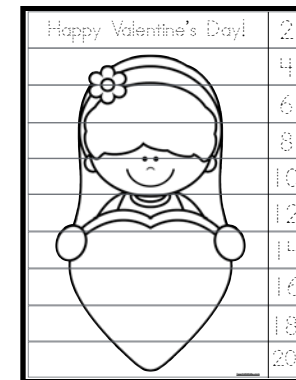

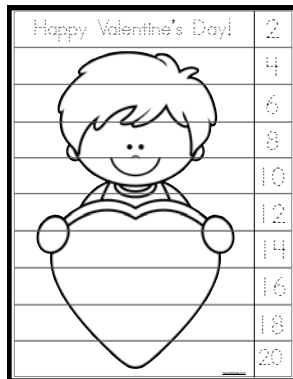

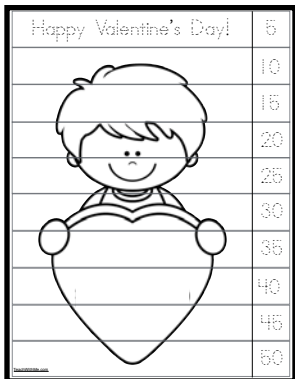

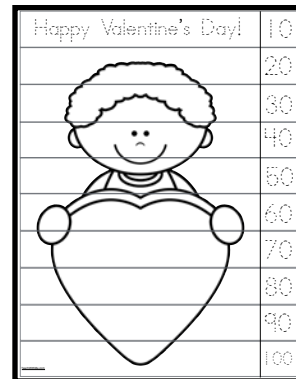

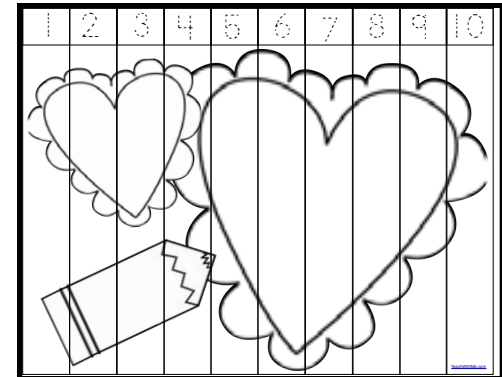

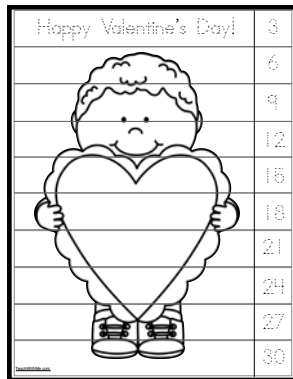

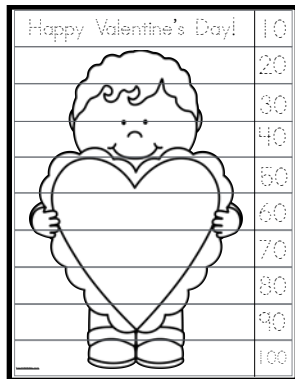

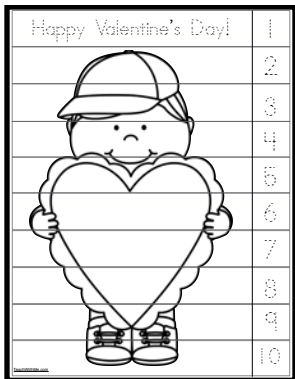

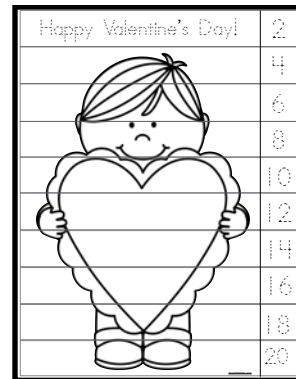

You could also tuck in one of the other "header" options to use as a bookmark.

The Dollar Store sells a bag of 20 heart-shaped lollipops, so you can make a "Puzzles & Pops" gift.

Use these puzzles for writing prompts or "Write a valentine message" worksheets. Children choose one, then pick a special person to write a valentine note to. They complete the prompt inside the heart, color the picture, then trim. Fasten with a paperclip. That person puts their special valentine together to read the secret message. Super-fun activity for party day.

Happy Valentine's Day!
