How To Make A Pumpkin Pie

First, you set the oven to 425°F. While that's preheating, you beat two eggs in a large mixing bowl, then stir in the following ingredients:

- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1 1/2 teaspoons pumpkin pie spice
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 can (15 oz) pumpkin
- 1 1/4 cups evaporated milk or half and half

Next, you pour the mixture into a frozen deep-dish pie crust and bake for only 15 minutes.

When the timer rings, reduce the oven temperature to 350°F and bake for 40 to 50 minutes longer or until a toothpick inserted near the center, comes out clean.

Finally, let the pie cool for an hour or two, then serve with a dollop of whip cream or refrigerate.

A List Of Types Of Transitions With Examples

Transitions give your writing consistency and makes your paragraphs cohesive. Consider them as road signs that guide your readers through your paper.

There are many transitions, therefore it's easy to categorize them by the type of relationship that they describe. Some examples are similar for each category, but you should not interchange them or the transition will not suit the meaning you are going for.

I've started with the sequence category, because those are words that you need to stick to when writing you're "How to make a pumpkin pie" craftivity.

Transition Categories:

Sequence:

again, also, and, and then, besides, finally, furthermore, last, moreover, next, still, too, and ordinal numbers such as first, second, third

Time:

after a bit, after a few days, after a while, afterward, as long as, as soon as, at last, at length, at that time, before, earlier, immediately, in the meantime, in the past, lately, later, meanwhile, now, presently, shortly, simultaneously, since, so far, soon, then, thereafter, until, when

Cause and Effect:

accordingly, as a result, because, consequently, for this purpose, hence, so, then, therefore, thereupon, thus, to this end

Comparison:

again, also, in the same way, likewise, once more, similarly

Concession:

although it is true that, granted that, I admit that, it may appear that, naturally, of course

Transition Categories & Examples Continued:

Conclusion, Repetition, or Summary:

as a result, as has been noted, as I have said, as we have seen, as mentioned earlier, in any event, in conclusion, in other words, in short, on the whole, therefore, to summarize

Contrast:

although, but, despite, even though, however, in contrast, in spite of, instead, nevertheless, nonetheless, notwithstanding, on the contrary, on the one hand on the other hand, regardless, still, though, yet

Example:

after all, even, for example, for instance, indeed, in fact, of course, specifically, such as, the following example, to illustrate
