What can you do with the traceable word cards?

- Run off the schoolhouses and glue them to the front of 2 file folders. Scotch tape the sides shut.
- Print and laminate one set of cards on cardstock.
- Pass them out to your class.
- Have students decide if they should go in the schoolhouse folder that is plural or the one that is singular. Have them drop the word cards in the appropriate file folder after they read the card.
- Run off additional sets on two different colors of paper so that you can make Memory Match games. This will make the game easier to play and expedite time. Students match the single word to its plural form.
- Play verbal "Match It". Print and laminate another set and put on a split ring and use as flashcards for your students. Flash the card and see who can give you either the plural or singular word to match it.
- Print and laminate and sprinkle them on the floor. Have students collect the cards before the timer rings. Have students organize them by counting or alphabetizing the cards, or matching the singular words to their plurals.
- Put a set in a bag, basket or box and have students pull out a card and read it. If they can't, they are out of the game.
- Add "bomb" cards and play "Kaboom". Students take a card out of the container. Teacher calls on a student to start the game, that child reads their word card and calls on another student. If they have a bomb card, everyone yells "Kaboom" and both children are out of the game.
- Run off copies of the cards for your students. They trace the words, cut out the cards, and add a cover to make a Plural Itty

Bitty booklet so they can share it with their families and reinforce lessons learned at school.

- Have them put the singular word first and then the plural.
- You can use all of the words, or pick and choose.
- Have students put the words in alphabetical order before they collate their booklets.
- Play “I Have, Who Has?” Teacher says: “I have (the single word ____, who has the plural for it?” That student continues by showing their card and asking for the next word on the list. You can spice this game up by adding the “Kaboom” cards.
- Have students choose a partner and play “Speed” against them. One child has the plural form, the other has the singular form. The cards need to be in the same order.
- Students place them face down. They say 1-2 flip and then flip a card over. The first one to read it takes the cards. The student with the most cards wins.
- Make mini posters out of the cards and display them on the wall. Play I’m Thinking of a word. The teacher or student gives clues about the words. Students look at the poster and try to figure out which one they are talking about. i.e., “I’m thinking of a word that has 5 letters in it. It has 2 vowels and 2 consonants and would come after the word _____ if you alphabetized it. “
- Play Mystery Word. Use the cards as mystery cards. Choose one each day to hide behind a question mark poster that you have hanging on the board. Ask students to guess what WOW (word of the week) they think is hiding behind the question mark by giving clues like the above.
- Have students put the cards in alphabetical order.
- If you think of other ways to use the cards, I’d enjoy hearing from you, so I can add them to this list. diane@teachwithme.com
