(Classification Continued Next Page)

Dear Families,

Knowing one's phone number is very important. To help make learning that fun, and to reinforce our reading, writing and speaking skills, would you please help your child with their "Who Ya Gonna Call?" Home-School Connection assignment? We are making a Class Yellow Pages. Your child's ad is attached.

- Please discuss with them that they are selling either goods or a service. Goods are things they can sell like toys, cookies, Kool-aid etc. and services are something they do for someone. i.e., dentists, doctors, beauticians, electricians, plumbers, dance instructors all provide services.
- Page through your own Yellow Pages and show them some of the ads.
- They can choose one of those ideas, or simply ask them what their favorite thing they like to do is, or what they are good at that they would like to help someone with, or what they would like to be when they grow up. If they want to sell some goods, ask them what type of thing they would like to sell?
- Please fill in the blank for the ad on the comment line, and then have your child write their first AND last name and phone number on the appropriate lines. (See sample.)
- They need to draw AND color a picture of themselves providing the goods or doing that service.
- The children will reinforce their verbal skills by sharing their ads with their classmates. We will try and guess what they're doing by looking at their picture before they read us their ad.
- I will be compiling all of the pages to make our own Class Yellow Pages as a "big book" for all to enjoy "reading".
- Your child's ad is due: _____.. Thanks in advance for your cooperation.

Educationally Yours,

Sample:

If you need: Brainstorm with your child and then fill in: (a great hairdo, a kitten, your lawn mowed.)

Call: (Your child writes their first AND last name down.)

At: (Your child writes their phone number with area code first.)

Comment: (Brainstorm with your child of what they want to say about the goods or service they are selling/providing and then write one sentence for them, or write it on a sheet of scratch paper and have them copy it on their ad. (I make the best tasting Kool-aid! I've got the best deals in town, My puppies are the cutest!)
